

Course description

Course No.	1900811W	College	CHSS	Dept	CHSS
Teacher	TBA
Time	18/12/2017-12/01/2018
Course Name	English	Intermediate Chinese
	Chinese	高级汉语
Course hours	Total	Theory	Self-study or Practice	Credits
	68	60	8	6.0
Course description: Describe the aims of the course Course expands knowledge of culture and language. Content includes etymology of Chinese words, Chinese geography, history, society, literature, and philosophy. Further development of skills in reading and writing, and practice in everyday conversational Mandarin Chinese.
Requirements for courses: ability and knowledge in advance Basic Chinese knowledge
Course structure explanation: Make clear the necessary parts, optional parts, distribution of hours. Courses with experiments or practices are expected to explain hours needed, content, scheme and functions.
Week 1: Introduction Talking about the Weather 1 Dialogue I: Tomorrow's Weather Will Be Even Better! Dialogue II: The Weather Here Is Awful!
Week 2: Dining Dialogue I: Dining Out Dialogue II: Eating in a Cafeteria

Week 3:

Asking Directions

Dialogue I: Where Are You Off To?

Dialogue II: Going to Chinatown

Week 4:

Birthday Party

Dialogue I: Let's Go to a Party!

Dialogue II: Attending a Birthday Party

Teaching methods: (Lectures, practice, etc)

Classroom hours will be devoted to the learning of the single character, compounds and sentence structure, analysis and translation of sentences, sentence buildup, conversation and composition.

Students are expected to prepare for both the reading and the translation of the text.

Forms of evaluation and requirements

Structure of the final grade(including presence, class performance,), focus of exam, forms of exam(test, interview, final report, etc)

Presentation: 50%

Exam: 50%

	Name	Publisher	Author	Year	Price
Textbook	Integrated Chinese		Tao Chung Yao and Yuehua Liu	Latest Edition	